Washington International Piano Arts Council (WIPAC) celebrates its 20th Anniversary under the gracious patronage of His Excellency the Ambassador of the Czech Republic Hynek Kmoníček and Mrs. Indira Kmoníček on November 20th. The Fall Gala 2021 Chair of the Committee is Annie Totah, a great patron of the arts in Washington. The gala will honor past and present Presidents of WIPAC. The evening will honor past and present Presidents of WIPAC. The evening begins with a cocktail reception at 6:30pm, guests will be serenaded by a quartet while sipping champagne, followed by a piano concert by a young and exciting pianist Natalia Kazaryan and seated dinner followed by dancing to the music of Radio King Orchestra until 11pm.

The Festival of Music and the WIPAC 18th International Piano Artists Competition was held with great success at the Cosmos Club last August when 15 international gifted pianists came to DC to compete for honor and distinction. Winner will be presented in the Spring of 2022 at The Winners Grand Prix Concert.

Mark your calendar and join us to celebrate and be a part of our membership. Your support will enable WIPAC to continue to host The 2022 Festival of Music and the 19th Piano Competition.

WIPAC is a 501(c)3, an all-volunteer organization that relies upon the generosity of its members and sponsors who believe that music enhances the quality of our lives.
